

Why Only You

HAERTS

Somebody's out there
Somebody's out to catch you
Don't be a fool now
Don't think that I'd forget you
Why only you, why only you

Never been so low
Now that your mind's not bending
Tears that you cry still
Dream of a happy ending
Why only you, why only you
Why only you, why only you

Why only you, why only you
Why only you, why only you

And I want to know now
Want to understand
See you turn it over
See you back again
And I want to know now
Want to understand

Somebody's out there
Somebody's out to catch you
Don't be a fool now
Don't think that I'd forget you
