

Beginners

HAEVN

A stolen moment, silent glance
When you shut your eyes, I am lost
So much unsaid, but understood
As my fragile heart dares to trust

O my darling now, I'm bracing for the fall
Though I never felt peace like this before

We are just beginners
Have some faith in the unknown
With every step, we learn, we grow
We are just beginners
Take a leap and learn to fall
Before we learn to fly at all
We'll build a home, and find our way
Cause we're beginners, every day

The shadows fade, we drift apart
Me on the stubborn side
You on the quiet
Eyes look down, our spirits bruised
Can we find our way?
Back to the light

O, I've never felt pain like this before

We are just beginners
Have some faith in the unknown
With every step, we learn, we grow
We are just beginners
Take a leap and learn to fall
Before we learn to fly at all
So here's to us, our journey starts
With courage in our longing hearts
We'll build this home, and find our way
Cause we're beginners, every day
