

Holy Ground

HAEVN

I waited for you woman
Waited for the day to come
At the end of your garden
Staring at your holy ground

I was blinded by your colors
Growing trees that feed my soul
But you're a careful lover
That never turns around for more

Hmm, I was waiting for the sun
To shake the cold from my frozen heart
Hmm, yes, I was waiting for the sun
To shine a light on your holy ground

Holy ground
I was laying on your
Holy ground
I was waiting for you
Until the break of dawn
I was laying on your
Holy ground
Now I'm waiting for you

Well I heard your promise
Some things are better left undone
Yes, I knew you were trouble
But I've been staring way too long

Hmm, yes, I've been praying to belong
For one more day on your holy ground

Holy ground
I was laying on your
Holy ground
I was waiting for you
Until the break of dawn
I was laying on your
Holy ground
Now I'm waiting for you
