Throw Me A Line

HAEVN

Is there a place where we can go and talk this out
Got a feeling that I can't escape
I'm falling in doubt

Is there a way how you can leave this daunting force
Got all shattered by your push and pull
Leaving me lost

Eh, Say the words
I'm right here
Oeh, Just say the words

Oeh, Throw me a line
You hear me?
Oeh, Throw me a line

Remember when you told me how our lives would change
You'd be leaving all your fears behind
I've been holding a space for us

Oeh, Say the words
I'm right here
Oeh, Just say the words

Oeh, Throw me a line
You hear me?
Oeh, Throw me a line

Are you out there
I've been waiting for so long
Are you out there

Are you ready to break out now
Are you ready to break out now
Are you ready to break out now
Are you ready to break out now

Are you ready to break out now
Are you ready to break out now
Are you ready to break out now

Cause I'm ready for you
