

We Are

HAEVN

A morning filled with dark night
Calling out your name
I'm waiting for an answer
How did we end up here?

Try to find a shoreline
With no ground beneath my feet
I miss your hand in mine now
I try to understand

Cold... We are, we are, we are
Cold... We are, we are, we are
Baby we're lost
Come home with me
Baby we're lost
Come home

Once we were like sunlight
With nothing in between
Now we share the distance
With shadows at our feet

I'm blinded by desire
A new horizon that I see
I feel the cold of rain drops
Salted by my tears

Cold... We are, we are, we are
And cold... We are, we are, we are
Baby we're lost
Come home with me
Baby we're lost
Come home

And we'll walk until
A new day will break
Til the hurt wears off
And the storm will fade
We will talk again
About the difference
And we both will see
That our love has grown

Baby we're lost
Come home with me
Baby we're lost
Come home
Baby we're lost
Come home, with me
