

Blight

Hail the Sun

Stop I swore I knew this one
But I've recalled it wrong
Or was it never even there?
What makes it shift?
Are there millions of me?
Are there billions of me?
Crossing with the slightest glitch
Seconds, but they're out of pitch

What if our names have already changed?

Would we even know the difference?
Odd is now even
Difference timeline simulation
Which one am I in?

Paranoid, paranoid, paranoid of the things that I thought I knew
Clear as day I see her dress is darker
Even though I swore it was a different color
Are we indirectly crossing over
To a world that is just like ours?

Paranoid (I've been here before)
Paranoid (But I can't recall)
Paranoid

Why does everything feel different?
Simulation on
Doesn't this all feel predicted?
Even now it's odd
