

Love won't call
Like it used to do
Vows take tolls
Harnessing a new approach
Anger's born
Now they have to stay
Learning curve
Trusting in "laissez-faire"
Not yet in a nightmare

Tear ducts overworked
Languid senses through the night
Love lost sanctity
Impatient youth

Years don't stall
With the after shock
Time feels wrong
Never meant to go this long
Verses told them both
That the goal was permanent
Choices made when they were
Too young now it's not fair
Matrimony nightmare

Tear ducts overworked
Link with senses through the night
Loved lost sanctity
Impatient youth

Vows take tolls
Love let go
New approach
Nothing is less safe there
Forever
Forever
Forever
Swear it's not a nightmare
Matrimony nightmare

Rains cold, grow apart
Languid senses through the night
Love lost sanctity
Impatient youth
