

This state of mind's got me crazy
How could you get me so angry?
Look now, You've got me screaming!

There's a lot going on inside my mind,
It's true I'm always lying (I've wondered...) Am I already dead if I'm living to die?
I'll sit and listen, but I'm thinking
'bout how bad I want to open the window and shove you (shove you) right out of it!

There's no way that you could guess
what I'm about to do...

I'll cheat just to win
Tunnel-vision type reaction!

This state of mind's got me crazy!
How could you get me so angry?
Look now! You've got me screaming

Laying here with my baby by my side,
but something isn't right
I forget that I'm solo... who's this brunette girl?
Lets fuck anyway!
I'll use you more than you're using;
like the drugs that you're abusing
it's so easy not to stop.

Hey there Facade, without your help they all would know that I'
m a fraud.
It's like a game. It makes me sick.
But I can now admit I love the rush I get
To overact. Use words to hurt.
I'll bite my tongue just long enough to kill the nerves.
And ride you out... I'll ride you out. I'll ride you out. I'll ride you out.
I'll ride you out!
