

The 'Fun' in Dysfunction

Hail the Sun

Nix that moment of love
Earning your trust
Tear it apart for us
My vision is rough
It isn't love
Tear it apart for us

Tainted flesh is all over the room
Toxic fumes make them nauseous
But I need it
Craving dysfunction and violence
Perfect reactor

Afraid to break
Embrace the pain
The pain is safe
Let it in
Afraid to break
Embrace the pain
Feel it, pain feel it
Don't let us die alone
(Die all alone, die all alone)
(Afraid to break up, afraid to break up)
Don't let us die alone
(Die all alone, die all alone)
(Afraid to break up, afraid to break up)
Don't let it go

(Go)
Don't you like to feel this way
(You're always wrong)
Don't you like to feel this way
(Always numb)
Destructing all of the pictures of (I've heard it all)
Everything closely resembling us
(This shouldn't be okay)
Destructing triggers of everything
(I know it's not right)
Destructing triggers of

Burn out
Swelling with doubt
Swelling with doubt
Romance a lacerated myth
Romance a lacerated myth

Tainted flesh is all over the room
Toxic fumes make them nauseous
But I need it
Craving dysfunction and violence
Perfectly reacting as one

I see it every night
While feeding off the fights
'Bout time you killed the shrine
Existing ties of us

A double suicide!

Darkened
Fiction
Romance

Double suicide
Puppeteering lies
A reckless cycle of
(Get out, come back)
Always keeping hope
Tugging at your soul
Parasitic love lines
Barricade us in

Afraid to break
Embrace the pain
The pain is safe
Let it in Darkened
Fiction
Romance
Get out
Come back
Let it in

Give me something I can hold on to Something that loves to destruct as I do
Convolute! Give me something I can hold on to Hold on to
