

Lovebite

Haken

I knew that loving you
Could never be simple, simple
The widow licks her wounds
She's the devil with the details, details
As I sink into you
Oh, the first cut ain't the deepest, deepest

You and I cannibalise
My heart's still beating on the outside
We consummate, decapitate
I taste the venom of your love bite

The danger of the thrill
A fatal attraction
Fractured
Another view to a kill
Caught in the torment of her rapture
Captured

As if you couldn't be more reckless
I see you've eaten somebody else
Won't let my jealousy affect us
Is too much not enough for you?

How many others came before me?
You know the pleasure's always in the hunt
So make it quick and kill me softly
Is this your idea of true love?

You and I cannibalise
My heart's still beating on the outside
(The devil's at your throat)
We consummate, decapitate
I taste the venom of your lovebite
(I'll tear apart your world)

It's over
You're a fool to think that you've been victimised
(Eat me at the altar)
Devoured
Have my actions spoken louder than words?

You and I cannibalise
My heart's still beating on the outside
(I'll eat your flesh from head to toe)
We consummate, decapitate
I taste the venom of your love bite
(I'll leave your rotting corpse here to decompose)
