

Souls

Haken

Draw back the curtain there is light
Our mystery shall be revealed
Like a raindrop falling from the sky
We'll merge with the ocean of souls

Nothing in the distance
Can't you see your journey's end
Only existing as a memory

Life is free
Make the most of what'cha got before it costs
Fly with the wind
Don't be chained down by your doubts
Plant the seed feed the need that grows inside you

And we will never turn to stone
Our spirit will travel beyond

If you're searching for the answers
You will find there is no proof

Fear the void it waits
Bound by man's fate
Flesh will rot inside the tomb
No return from death
Embrace the end
Solitary entrapment

Souls cascade
Time dissolves
Embrace your fate

Elevate ascend beyond your mind
Submerge with the stream of life

From this mortal zenith we inhale
We gaze on the valley of life

Every day must close
I have turned to stone
Existing as a memory
Time dictated our end

White light pulls me
Shines on my memory

Intrigue draws me
Mortal mystery

Mist engulfs me
Clouds our history

Elation guides me
Senses in harmony

Myth engulfs my senses
