

Broken Doll

Halestorm

Why did you leave me in the dark?
Twisted smile and missing parts
While you find something shiny and new
After all we've been through

I'm never good enough
Misunderstood
That's what happens when you play too rough
Now I'm just another broken doll

I still believe the lies we shared
Shattered dreams beyond repair
Did you really think that you can forget
Me hiding under your bed?

I'm never good enough
Misunderstood
That's what happens when you play too rough
Now I'm just another broken doll

Go on and throw it all away
Some things can never be replaced
You know there's no replacing me
You know there's no escaping me

I'm never good enough
Misunderstood
That's what happens when you wind me up
Now I'm just another broken doll

Go on and throw it all away
Some things can never be replaced
You know there's no replacing me
You know there's no replacing me
You know there's no escaping me
