

Fallen Star

Halestorm

My heart is racing
In Technicolor
Daylight is fading
There ain't no other
Nobody sees me
Quite like you do
Baby, believe me
Tonight, you're all I've got to lose

I'm a fallen star that can only fall so far from you, ooh

I see the ending
The walls are closing
Oh, I've been swimming
In a silent ocean
Feels like I'm drowning
Don't ask me why
Like I'm surrounded by the echoes of the tears that fill your eyes
yes

I'm a fallen star that can only fall so far from you, yeah

I don't know what I'm supposed to do
To make up for all I put you through
There's a part of me that's gone with you
Burning out in the night

I'm a fallen star that can only fall so far from
I'm a fallen star that can only fall so far from you, oh yeah
You, ooh

Kick it
