

Gather The Lambs

Halestorm

Gather up the Lamb of God
He won't be here soon
I've been followed by the ghost
That leads me to you
That leads me to you

So in the end, stay with me
Underneath the fallen sun
Watch the world fade away
Until we're the only ones
Say everything we need to say
Before everything is gone
Why does everybody run?

When the ground begins to shake
Beneath the broken sky
I'll be lying here awake
Wishing you were by my side
Wishing you were by my side

So in the end, stay with me
Underneath the fallen sun
Watch the world fade away
Until we're the only ones
Say everything we need to say
Before everything is gone
Why does everybody run? Ooh

So in the end, stay with me
Underneath the fallen sun
Watch the world fade away
Until we're the only ones
Say everything we need to say
Before everyone is gone
Why does everybody run?

Why does everybody run?
