

I Bleed

Halestorm

Only women bleed for the men they so desperately need.
Was I blind to see?
All the reason you wanted to be free.

Questions, Problems, Answers.
I've got none.
This kind of love is killing me.

I bleed, every time you walk away
You would leave everything and now I'm crying.
I believed when you said you'd never go away
But then you did, now every night I pay for it
I bleed.

You left me at the start,
The silence if deafening my heart.
I examine my scars, losing my mind wondering just what we are.

Questions, Problems, Answers
I've got none.
What is this love you stole from me?

I bleed, every time you walk away,
You would leave everything and now I'm crying.
I believed when you said you'd never go away
But then you did, now every night I pay for it.

Why, Why?
I don't understand
Why, Why?
do you colour my world red?

I bleed, every time you walk away,
You would leave everything!
I believed when you said you'd never go away
But then you did, now every night I pay for it
Yeah, but then you did, now every night I pay for it.
