

I Gave You Everything

Halestorm

I'm falling back together, or am I falling apart?
I'm running from the ending or right back to the start
I'm lost in the mazes twisting through my head Trapped inside the mirror, you made me what I am

I gave you everything, I gave you everything, I gave you everyt hing
But you fucked up again
I gave you everything, I gave you everything, I gave you everyt
hing
But you fucked up and you fucked me again

I told you all my secrets, I showed you all my scars
You used my trust against me and showed me who you are But damn, I built a castle from what little I had left I've made a world without you from the sick inside my head

I gave you everything, I gave you everything, I gave you everyt
hing
But you fucked up again
I gave you everything, I gave you everything, I gave you everyt
hing

I gave you everything, I gave you everything, I gave you everyt
hing
But you fucked up again
I gave you everything, I gave you everything, I gave you everyt
hing
But you fucked up and you fucked me again

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Yeah, you fucked up and you fucked me again
Yeah, yeah, yeah, everything
