

Not Enough

Halestorm

I'm a taste of what reminds you
Be a good child who confines you now
What if I once was an angel on your shoulder
You would now shout out

And I will never say I'm sorry
I'm in just to kill
What I did with good intentions
But my hunger never failed

You once said I was your savior
I'm in deep now who's your maker now
'Cause of your mind I fell in love
If it's just flesh then it's not enough

I will never say I'm sorry
Take oddments to retake
I would love to rape you from
What you thought was our mistake

It's not enough
To have, to hold
It's not enough
To breathe you in
It's not enough
No, it's not enough

I will never say I'm sorry
I will never say I'm sorry
I would love to rape you from
What you thought was our mistake

It's not enough
To have, to hold
It's not enough
To breathe you in
It's not enough
No, it's not enough
It's not enough
