

Shiver

Halestorm

I swam out where the water's too deep
Held my breath and sank into your sea
Ran back into a burning house
Found a maze with no way out

I carry the weight
And fall through the ice
Shiver forever to drown in your eyes
Run off a cliff
Pretend that it's flying
But deep down, I know I'm the only one trying
Sometimes, sometimes
Lovin' you feels like dying
Sometimes, sometimes
Lovin' you feels like dying

It's the end of the end
But I'll never leave
I can't give you up and stay in one piece
The cuts on my heart are starting to show
There's not a scratch on ya
Not one broken bone

I carry the weight
And fall through the ice
Shiver forever to drown in your eyes
Run off a cliff, pretend that it's flying
But deep down, I know I'm the only one trying
Sometimes, sometimes
Lovin' you feels like dying
Sometimes, sometimes
Lovin' you feels like dying

I carry the weight
And fall through the ice
Shiver forever to drown in your eyes
Run off a cliff, pretend that it's flying
But deep down, I know I'm the only one trying
And sometimes, sometimes
Lovin' you feels like dying

Sometimes, sometimes
Lovin' you feels like dying
Sometimes, sometimes lovin' you
