

Body

Haley Blais

I deserve this, it's not absurd
I am the hardest person I can care for
And I know that it's just a body count
But the body keeps the score

Put a picture of a smile of a sill
Just to know what I'm looking at
Caught a glimpse of each other on the hill
What feels forever can happen fast

Don't ask me any questions about
All the things I've done
Don't ask me any questions about
All the things I've done
'Cause nothing's ever changing

All night talking about how we think we'll go
Man this whole year feels like hell
Stuck forever in a reboot of your favourite
Teenage television show

Don't ask me any questions about
All the things I've done
Don't ask me any questions about
All the things I've done
Don't ask me any questions about
All the things I've done
'Cause nothing's ever changing
'Cause nothing's ever changing

Don't ask me any questions
Don't ask me any questions
Don't ask me any questions
