

Let Yourself Go

Haley Blais

If you want it, you can have it
You can reach out and just grab it
If you're ready, you can take it
You should know...

It's no wonder you're alone now
When they used to break your door down
It's a shame but, if you're ready
You should know...

You really let yourself go
You really let yourself go
Oh, you let yourself go
You really let yourself go

It's a simple operation
To look like your internal vacation
Put some effort in your outsides
Let it show

No one cares just what you're into
Just do a twelve hour sit and look at you
You're so pretty when you smile
There you go

You almost let yourself go
You almost let yourself go
Oh, you let yourself go
You almost let yourself go
Go, g-go
Go, g-go
