

So Far Gone

Haley Blais

Staring at the ceiling of my studio apartment
Looking for some meaning in a deep hidden compartment
Nothing feels much better than when I am doing nothing
If I tell her I'll upset her so I think I won't

Waking up in the morning but the day is done
So fed up of this traffic but the ride is fun
Trying to feel like somebody haven't been here long
Trying to deal no I haven't 'cause I'm so far gone

How do you know you're happy when the sun is out
Bump into some random actress with the perfect pout
Trying to feel like somebody haven't been here long
Trying to deal no I haven't 'cause I'm so far gone

Waking up in the morning but the day is done
So fed up of this traffic but the ride is fun
Trying to feel like somebody haven't been here long
Trying to deal no I haven't 'cause I'm so far gone
