

Too Good

Haley Blais

(Ah, ah)

Call me a liar
Call me anything you want
I can tell that you are waiting for me
To say something wrong
But I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good

Ooh, I can tell you anything, but you won't listen to me
I could save your life and you'd say "thanks" sarcastically
The irony to me is deafeningly blinding
How does a dog see in black and white not minding?
We watch a movie and we act it out with all your friends
I think it's healthy to suspend belief and just pretend

Call me a liar
Call me anything you want
I can tell that you are waiting for me
To say something wrong
But I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good

(Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha
Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha
Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha)

But I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good
I'm too good (Call me a liar)
I'm too good
I'm too good (Call me anything you want)
I'm too good
I'm too good (You can call me a liar)
I'm too good
I'm too good (Call me anything you want)
I'm too good
I'm too good (You can call me a liar)
I'm too good
I'm too good (Call me anything you want)
I'm too good
