

Brave Face

Haley Joelle

Lily just got married
And Miki got engaged
I just got broken up with
By who I thought was my soulmate

I'm trying to be happy
And eat some of the cake
But I'm so heartbroken
I can't even stand the taste

And I hate to be selfish here
But this feeling won't disappear
I can't celebrate all my friends
Tying knots, making promises
I won't try to catch the bouquet
Cuz I'll ruin make up that took all day
I'm sorry, I'm trying
To put on a brave face

Meeting up with them in public
I was looking forward to
But they'll ask how things are going
Then I'll have to break the news
And bring down the mood

And I hate to be selfish here
But this feeling won't disappear
I can't celebrate all my friends
Tying knots, making promises
I won't try to catch the bouquet
Cuz I'll ruin make up that took all day
I'm sorry, I'm trying
To put on a brave face
To put on a brave face

I'm tryna be a good friend
But my heart is broken
I'm tryna be a good friend

Be a good friend
But I'm broken

I'm tryna be a good friend
But my heart is broken
I'm tryna be a good friend

And I hate to be selfish here
But this feeling won't disappear
I can't celebrate all my friends
Tying knots, making promises
I won't try to catch the bouquet
Cuz I'll ruin make up that took all day
I'm sorry, I'm trying
