

Magical Thinking

Haley Joelle

I read it somewhere on the internet
That when you're in my head there's a little chance
That you could be dreaming of me
And nothing is quite what it seems
Cause it's been almost six months since we met
And eight weeks since you left me here
Is it true, I don't know
But I'd rather buy in
Than let you go
So last night at the movies
Or today waking up

Is it magical thinking
When you come out of nowhere
That I'm on your mind, like you're on mine
Am I magical thinking
Cause I wanna believe that
When I'm thinking of you, you're thinking of me too
Mmmm
Mmmm

And maybe you found a somebody new
Who took my place, who's been distracting you
So why do I feel what I feel
Like us being done isn't real
I wish I could be a fly on the wall
Do you care at all, like me
I could pick up the phone
But I'm afraid that might leave me
Feeling more alone
But if I dreamt you still loved me
Would you book a flight home

Is it magical thinking
When you come out of nowhere
That I'm on your mind, like you're on mine
Am I magical thinking
Cause I wanna believe that
When I'm thinking of you, you're thinking of me too
Mmmm
Mmmm
Mmmm

When I'm thinking of you
Are you thinking of me too
