

Honey, There's the Door

Haley Reinhart

Honey, come on over here
And sit down real nice and close
Don't you worry
Just wanna get a better look at cha
Not that you didn't look good before

I'm gonna lay down my cards
Don't take this too hard
I don't want normal
'Cause that's been done
I need that up and above
That classic Casanova kinda stuff

You better tell me that you love me
Tell me that you need me
Treat me like I'm everything you want and more
Tell me that I'm funny and sexy
If you don't then honey, there's the door

You better tell me that I sparkle
That my eyes are diamonds
Tell me I remind you of Marilyn Monroe
Treat me like the star of your show
If you don't well honey, there's the door

Phew
Now that I got that off my chest
Don't hold it against me
I gotta give it to you straight
'Cause that's what I do best
Baby, tell me
Where are you takin' me next

Is it Greece or in Rome
A vacation at home
I don't want normal
'Cause that's been done
I need that up and above
That classic Casanova kinda stuff

You better tell me that you love me
Tell me that you need me
Treat me like I'm everything you want and more
Tell me that I'm funny and sexy
If you don't then honey, there's the door

You better tell me that I sparkle
That my eyes are diamonds
Tell me I remind you of Bridget Bardot
Treat me like the star of your show
If you don't well honey, there's the door

La la la la la la la...

You better tell me that you love me
Tell me that you need me
Treat me like I'm everything you want and more

Tell me that I'm funny and sexy
If you don't then honey, there's the door

You better tell me that I sparkle
That my eyes are diamonds
Tell me I remind you of Marilyn Monroe
Treat me like the star of your show
If you don't well honey, there's the door
