

Lay It Down

Haley Reinhart

Truth is
I don't see you in my dreams
Want your cake and eat it too
Can't expect me to follow you

Oh all around
All I see are signs of love
Could try to turn away but I knew
Knew this song would remind me of you

Was there something I could do
Did I ask too much from you
You know I can take the truth
So lay it down

The bed you made
Has no room for me
Underneath your frozen sheets
I would sleep so terribly

I don't need
Never needed much you see
I'll go back to the way I was
And you'll just be a memory

Was there something I could do
Did I ask too much from you
You know I can take the truth
So lay it down
Lay it down
Oh lay it down
Lay it down
Oh lay it down on me yeah

I don't need
Never needed much you see
I'll go back to the way I was
And you'll just be a memory

Was there something I could do
Did I ask too much from you
You know I can take the truth
So lay it down
