

Everything's A.O.R.

Half Man Half Biscuit

Bubble perm
Ever since your bubble perm
I've gone ex-directory
Just in case you need me

Swivel chair
In your leather swivel chair
You can turn your back on me
Leave me in the out-tray

She's the main man in the office in the city
And she treats me like I'm just another lackey
But I can put a tennis racket up against my face
And pretend that I am Kendo Nagasaki

Executive
Think you're all executive
But I could still upset you with
Millican and Nesbit

Acumen
Loads of business acumen
But can you remember when
You would die for Flintlock

Mary oh Mary
Quite ordinary
Tell me how does your CD collection grow
With Sade and Whitney
Vandross and T'Pau
Everything's AOR

She's the main man in the office in the city
And she treats me like I'm just another lackey
But I can put a tennis racket up against my face
And pretend that I am Kendo Nagasaki

She's the main man in the office in the city
I remember her when she was reading Jackie
But I can put a tennis racket up against my face
And pretend that I am Kendo Nagasaki
