

This is the beauty of betrayal
True colors come to light
Misery took the wheel once more
A glimmer of hope swallowed by the dark

Craving for attention, notoriety and fame, you're nothing more than a snake

Venomous game, you turned from the predator to prey
Before your time has come to wither away
You should consider what you are about to say but ignorance is king

Suffering alone, watching you corrode

What are you asking for a life without resentment?
Do you think you'll ever let me go?
Made a mistake when I gave you attention
But already knew that you would bite on stone

Crush your fucking teeth
You're never getting underneath
Another trial for a white lie
You're never getting underneath

Suffering alone, watching you corrode

What are you asking for a life without resentment?
Do you think you'll ever let me go?
Made a mistake when I gave you attention
But already knew that you would bite on stone

I'm burning at both ends
Slowly suffocating
Reaching boiling point
This is my fucking choice
I'll draw the blood from your veins, cold as ice
I'll leave you to rot away behind dead eyes

Hiding behind your sulfurous smile

Hide behind your sulfurous smile
