Half Moon Run

(And I love you)
(And I love you)

I miss the southern sky
I miss those bedroom eyes
I miss that liars tongue
I miss the warm goodbye

(And I love you)
(And I love you)

I miss my lazy heart
I miss my second chance
I miss my unborn child
I miss that warm goodbye

(And I love you)
(And I love you)

It's not like I'm running away
It's not like I'm running away
Waking up to find yourself a beacon of the whole
Oh
Oh-oh
Waking up to find yourself a river overflowed
Oh
Oh-oh
Waking up to find yourself two feet from where you start
Oh
Oh-oh

(And I love you)
(And I love you)
(And I love you)
