

Another Woman

Half Moon Run

Another wish
Burned into skin
I'm learning one step at a time

You've got to be kind
In troubled times
Those habits have got to be clean
Habits have got to be clean

How could I find another woman?
How could I find another woman?

To learn how to stop
You start within
But I'm drowning at the top of the mount
Drowning at the top of the mount

How could I find another woman?
How could I find another woman?

Woman!

How could I find another woman?
How could I find another woman?
