

When you recount your dreams
I listen
When you remember the days
I listen
When you forget your things
I bring 'em
When you just can't go on
I'm liftin'
You up

What on earth were you thinking?
Did you think that I would be forgiving?
Have you got that sinking feeling?
'Cause you know I don't celebrate fxgiving?

Now you're in that hole
You're diggin'
Down into the mud
You're slingin'
You can't stand all the joy
I'm bringin'
You hate the songs I sing
But I keep singin'
Oh yea!

What on earth were you thinking?
Did you think that I would be forgiving?
Have you got that sinking feeling?
'Cause you know I don't celebrate fxgiving?

Between us
There is a schism
Together in a prison
Inseparable and unfulfillin'
Blood-boiling and bone-chillin'
Forever and a million
Infinity and all of its children
Unsuspecting and unwilling
But me
I don't celebrate fxgiving
This year, I don't celebrate fxgiving
