

Look into the gigafire
As it burns forever
Spitting ashy rain on
My brand new leather
Uh-huh

I can think of nothing better
Than getting lost together
Thinking 'bout the good old days
Before the change in the weather

I lay before the mother's grave
When the link was severed
And how we broke the ring of time
Baby, aren't we clever
I lay before the mother's grave
When the link was severed
Oh, how we broke the ring of time
Baby, aren't we clever
Uh-huh

This could be our very last chance
Before it's gone forever
This could be our very last chance
This time's not like the others

Step into the gigafire
And you will live forever
Step into the gigafire
And you will live forever
