

Hotel in Memphis

Half Moon Run

Something's rushing my blood again
Guess I gotta stop to breathe, ah
Head moving in all directions, singing
Waking up wet, night of no sleep

Fell into a hotel in Memphis
Come down with yellow eyes nearly every night
Came home to a war, man, it was senseless
Calling up, darling, damn

Now I'm up at the first light, looks just like I've done it again
in
Down forwards and backwards, this time I've done it for real
But there's nothing like a secret

Ship's steaming off in the distance
Left myself here on a beach, ah
I keep dreaming up new horizons, but I Stay in the cold sand, getting cold feet

Fell into a hotel in Memphis
Come down with yellow eyes nearly every night
Came home to a war, man, it was senseless
Calling up, darling, damn

Now I'm up at the first light, looks just like I've done it again
in
Down forwards and backwards, this time I've done it for real
But there's nothing like a secret

I bet I was out of line again
Made us all awkward in our heads
But I'll find out, I will, I will I'll find out, I will, I will

It's like I'm running out of secrets, I can't keep 'em, I can't keep
It's like I'm running out of secrets, I can't keep 'em, I can't keep
It's like I'm running out of secrets, I can't keep 'em, I can't keep
It's like I'm running out of secrets, I can't keep 'em, I can't keep
It's like I'm running
