

Jello on my Mind

Half Moon Run

Apple berry baby, cherry lime
I want to eat you, baby, all of the time
More sugar and I'll be fine
Jello on my mind

I'd been waiting just to pick you up
It only cost me like a couple of bucks
Clear as my conscience
You're sweet as can be
What can I do to get you inside of me?
There's no pressure to take your time
Jello on my mind

Why do I leave you alone overnight?
Cause in the morning I'm like Oh yea! Right!
And I get you to change my life
Jello on my mind

Jump over the edge
Just give in
I'm over my head
Swimming in
And I've more than plenty
Jello on my mind
