

Loose Ends

Half Moon Run

I gotta tie up some loose ends
I gotta tie up some loose ends

I dreamed I was a sailor
On a never-ending wind
Who passed through all the ports of call
But he never came back again
He'd been searching for a friend

I gotta tie up some loose ends
I gotta tie up some loose ends

I dreamed I was a soldier
Down some long forgotten road
Who'd been fighting for what he was before
But they never did let him know
That he'd lost a long time ago

I gotta tie up some loose ends
I gotta tie up some loose ends

All the best intentions of the morning
Slip away from me somehow
And suddenly the night reclaims the day
Oh boy, I

I gotta tie up some loose ends
I gotta tie up some loose ends
I gotta tie up some loose ends
I gotta tie up some loose ends
