

On & On

Half Moon Run

Lately, the silence
Tender and smiling
Echoes divinings
On & on

A pattern emerges
Spinning in circles
Further and further
On & on

I've carried a lifetime
This far and then some
And I bet you I sleep through
My final dawn

The sight of the prophet
Was perfect but crowded
And after an hour it
Dragged on

I listen to growin'
Ebbin' and flowin'
Nothin' like knowin'
The sun has shone

It's a close little whisper
A kiss from a distance
Bliss in an instant
Has come and gone

It's one, it's gone
