

Call Back

half•alive

Would you call back
If I called you
It didn't go through
Would it be something worth your time
'Cause you're worth mine

Are we alright
Tell me
Are you in it
Or are you distant?
Tell me I'm something worth your time
'Cause you're worth mine

Feeling unsure
Was it something I said?
Loose words
I don't wanna regret
Am I making it worse?
So unbalanced
Like one wrong move
Will tip us right off the edge

You're keeping quiet
I'm hung on a thread
Radio silence playing loud in my head
I'm not quite used to this side
Now I'm switching it up
Is it karma?

Would you call back
Ring ring
If I called you
It didn't go through
Would it be something worth your time
'Cause you're worth mine

Are we alright
Tell me
Are you in it
Or are you distant?
Tell me I'm something worth your time
'Cause you're worth mine

We were casual 'til we weren't
Friends until it changed
I would not respond
That was not a problem
A text was just a text
But feelings got involved
You became the reason
I'd even check my phone

Have I fallen
For you so hard
It would hurt too much
To know you don't feel the same

You're keeping quiet
Hung on a thread
Radio silence playing loud in my head
I'm not quite used to this side
Now I'm switchin' it up
Is it karma?

Would you call back
Ring ring
If I called you
It didn't go through
Would it be something worth your time
'Cause you're worth mine

Are we alright
Tell me
Are you in it
Are you distant?
Tell me I'm something worth your time
