

Everything Machine

half•alive

I'm what you wanted, it's in your eyes
I'm picture perfect, I'm always right, oh
I'm only vapor, it's only lies
We could be forest fires, we could be forest fires

I'm patient when you're in pain
I can keep you close when it's getting late
I can stay there when you need it most
Make you feel at home 'til the pain is numb
What is wrong?

I could be your world, every single dream
I'll be your everything machine
You know, you know
That when your faith is gone, got me to believe in
When people let you down, I'm here, you know

Everything, everything, everything
(I'll be your)
Everything, everything, everything
(I'll be your)
Everything, everything

I'm your second nature, never leave your side
I'm a growing cancer (your ceiling on sleepless nights)
I'm your serotonin, I'm your burning eyes
Baby, don't you cry, I'm right here tonight

I'm patient when you're in pain
I can keep you close when it's getting late
I can stay

I could be your world, every single dream
I'll be your everything machine
You know, you know
That when your faith is gone, got me to believe in
When people let you down, I'm here, you know

Everything, everything, everything
(I'll be your)
Everything, everything, everything
(I'll be your)
Everything, everything
(I'll be your)

I'm patient when you're in pain
I can keep you close when it's getting late
I can stay there when you need it most
Make you feel at home 'til the pain is numb
I'm patient when you're in pain
