

Hot Tea

half•alive

I really do
Wanna be
Crashing into your shore
Wrapping all around you
Sinking to the ground floor
Ocean deep

I wanna be
Here at your door
At 12am
And sleeping on your porch
Until you get in

Looking into your eyes
Endlessly
Falling into your lap
Desperately

Sitting at your feet
Soaking in all - your energy
Sip you through my front teeth
Held too close

Ooo!
Hold you in my hands like hot tea
Knowing I'm safe 'cause you want me
Ooo!
Sitting in a garden at your feet
You, me, only
Holding on and on

You're clawing at the corner of my heart, I
Can't afford to lose you any longer
Holding you like hot tea
You, me, only
Holding on and on

I wanna be ruined by love
Drowning in rivers of peace
Taking a piece of the cut
Longing for everything

Take it all in Life-sized bites
I'mma be Outside
Up all night
In the stars
Pale moon rise
Longing for everything

Looking into your eyes
Endlessly
Desperately

Sitting at your feet

Soaking in all - your energy
Oh right now, I wanna be Held too close

Ooo!
Hold you in my hands like hot tea
Knowing I'm safe 'cause you want me
Ooo!
Sitting in a garden at your feet
You, me, only
Holding on and on

You're clawing at the corner of my heart, I
You, me, only
Holding on and on

Ooo!
Hold you in my hands like hot tea
Knowing I'm safe 'cause you want me
Ooo!
Sitting in a garden at your feet
You, me, only
Holding on and on

You're clawing at the corner of my heart, I
Can't afford to lose you any longer
You, me, only
Holding on and on
