

ice cold.

half•alive

You're feeling that ice cold
Forgetting the good things
Caught up in the problems
Please stop complaining
Tell me something beautiful
Lovelier than usual

Hope is the closest
Haven't you noticed
This beauty in focus
Is dwelling in the depths of you
A desperate longing to break through

You're feeling that ice cold
Forgetting the good things
Caught up in the problems
Please stop complaining
Tell me something beautiful
Lovelier than usual

Holding that pain is holding you back
Keeping that rage is keeping you sad
Caught in the wake of memories past
Pulling you down 'til you drown in the bad

I wanna see you wake up
Shake free of all these hang-ups
Your heart is filling with glory
Shaping itself when you

Tell me something beautiful
Lovelier than usual
Relentless and immovable
Tell me something beautiful

Hope is the closest
Haven't you noticed
This beauty in focus
Is dwelling in the depths of you
A desperate longing to break through

Elevate, elevate, elevate (elevate)
Celebrate, celebrate, celebrate (celebrate)
Take a moment and appreciate
All the best things resting on the way
I wanna see you wake up
Shake free of all these hang ups
Your heart is filling with glory
Lifting you mind and lifting your worries

You're feeling that ice cold
Forgetting the good things
Caught up in your problems
Please stop complaining
Tell me something beautiful
Lovelier than usual
Tell me something

Tell me something beautiful
