

Lie, Lie

half•alive

Keep in a door, step inside
Just a look, nothing more, shift your eyes
My knuckle, reaction, you're acting, it happens
You smile, its habit, and tell us that you have it balanced
Well

You lie, you lie, you lie
You're losing all control
You try to hide the signs, but something's wrong
Open up your hands, working way too hard
Keeping it all together while you were housing cards
Ready or not, hide in your heart
You lie, you lie, you lie

Blink at the storm, in a dream
Keep the truth in your room, whilst asleep
The pressure is asking, you pull out, you're joking
You smile, its habit, and tell us that you have it balanced
Well

You lie, you lie, you lie
You're losing all control
You try to hide the signs, but something's wrong
Open up your hands, working way too hard
Keeping it all together while you were housing cards
Ready or not, hide in your heart
You lie, you lie, you lie

What was on your mind, mind
When you're telling me you're fine fine
Looking down when you would lie, you lie
Keeping me all tonight

What was on your mind, mind
When you're telling me you're fine fine
Looking down when you would lie, you lie
Keeping me all tonight
Wonder why

You lie, you lie, you lie
You're losing all control
You try to hide the signs, but something's wrong
Open up your hands, working way too hard
Keeping it all together while you were housing cards
Ready or not, hide in your heart
You lie, you lie, you lie
