

Nobody

half•alive

So exhausted, the ego
The feelings of free load?
Will leave me so empty
All the parties of people
Moving in need of
Obsessing, never-ending
(Doesn't really matter)

Watch me take it over
Move your body over
Make a little room for me
See 'em at the top
But leave 'em at the bottom
Focus on the come up
Become someone
Moving up the ladder
Doesn't really matter
As long as I am in the lead
See 'em at the top
But leave 'em at the bottom
Focus on the come up
Become someone

The more that I grow, the more that I've come to know
Yeah, it's hard to be someone
And it hurts to be nobody
Playing this game, it's easy to lose both ways
Yeah, it's hard to be someone
And it hurts to be nobody

Oh, I hate loving what you think
I hate the way I change the way I speak
I'm stuck, oh Lord
Feeding on the hype
But just because I like it
Doesn't make it right, no

Watch me take it over
Move your body over
Make a little room for me
See 'em at the top
But leave 'em at the bottom
Focus on the come up, become someone

The more that I grow, the more that I've come to know
Yeah, it's hard to be someone
And it hurts to be nobody
Playing this game, it's easy to lose both ways
Yeah, it's hard to be someone
And it hurts to be nobody

Hard to be someone
And it hurts to be nobody
Uh, oh
Oh!

I pass on a better stool looking back at you

Look what I had done, look what I can do
Yeah, oh
But imagine me having nothing to prove, and nothing to lose
And have the courage to be nobody, nobody, nobody
Nobody can hold me down

The more that I grow, the more that I've come to know
Yeah, it's hard to be someone
And it hurts to be nobody
Playing this game, it's easy to lose both ways
Yeah, it's hard to be someone

(Hard to be someone)
(Hurts to be nobody)

The more that I grow, the more that I've come to know
Yeah, it's hard to be someone (It's hard to be someone)
And it hurts to be nobody
Playing this game, it's easy to lose both ways
Yeah, it's hard to be someone (It's hard to be someone)
And it hurts to be nobody

(Hard to be someone)
(Hurts to be nobody)
