

TIME 2

half•alive

If life is a season
I was drunk on Christmas evening
With nothing I needed
And all the best was left behind

I'm back where I started
With sparks of what I used to know
A flame before I lost it
The simple child state of mind

(It's comin' like the sunshine)
(Rising in the morning)
Igniting what the course is
I'm waking up it's time

Time
Fighting the constant
Forgetting to give it up
Time
Forgot what I wanted
Now I'm waking up, it's time

Divided and conquered
I'm fleeing to the woods
I lost when I was younger
The simple child state of mind

(It's comin' like the sunshine)
(Rising in the morning)
I hope to never forget
To be a child wasting time

Time
Fighting the constant (Time, time)
Forgetting to give it up
Time
Forgot what I wanted
Now I'm waking up it's

(Time to)
Delete all the patterns (Time to)
Forget all I knew (Time to)
I remember what to do
I'm waking up it's

(Time to)
Go out when the rain falls (Time to)
Make a sudden move (Time to)
I remember what to do
I'm waking up it's time

(Return to the things I once knew)

Emerging from the cloud of youth
Returning to the things I knew
I think I had it all along
A child's song is nestled in the wing of truth

(It's comin' like the sunshine)
(Rising in the morning)
Igniting what the course is
I'm waking up it's time

Fighting the constant
Return to the water
Forgot what I wanted
Forgetting to give it up
Fighting the constant
Return to the water
Forgot what I wanted

(Time to)
Delete all the patterns (Time to)
Forget all I knew (Time to)
I remember what to do
I'm waking up it's

(Time to)
Go out when the rain falls (Time to)
Make a sudden move (Time to)
I remember what to do
I'm waking up it's

(Time to)
Notice the horizon (Time to)
The fire in pursuit (Time to)
I remember what to do
I'm waking up it's

(Time to)
Muscle turns to memory (Time to)
Returning back to you (Time to)
I remember what to do
I'm waking up it's time
