

What if after all this time I was wrong?
Running like a renegade all along
What if when I turn my back it is too late?
Staring at these bridges for too long
Trying to find a way back home

I'm such a mess
Diving so deep into nowhere
I'm so breathless
I'm a stray soul lost in the night

Miles and miles away
Will you let me stay or make me run away?
Miles and miles away
I've been led astray and become a runaway
I'm a fugitive and nobody knows
I'm a criminal with nowhere to run
Miles and miles away
Will you let me stay or make me run away?

What if I just wanted to apologize?
Try to calm the thunder that I left between you and I

So take my hand
I never meant to burn these bridges
We'll start again
Together we'll pick up the pieces

Miles and miles away
Will you let me stay or make me run away?
Miles and miles away
I've been led astray and become a runaway
I'm a fugitive and nobody knows
I'm a criminal with nowhere to run
Miles and miles away
Will you let me stay or make me run away?

I'm such a mess
But don't give up on me
I'm so hopeless
But don't give up on me

Miles and miles away
Will you let me stay or make me run away?
Miles and miles away
I've been led astray and become a runaway
I'm a fugitive and nobody knows
I'm a criminal with nowhere to run
Miles and miles away
Will you let me stay or make me run away?

Miles and miles away
Will you let me stay or make me run away?
