

Lone Wolf

Halfives

What have you done here? I shed all my tears
My cold heart left in a dead world
I survived alone, I survived alone
Look at my scars now and then realize
It's so hard not to break and fall

I'm singing to a new moon
Better off, better off alone

Now don't try to help me
I can face my own
Woah, Woah
Now don't try to catch me
I'm just like a lone wolf, wolf

What's going on here? I'll make it clear
I'm not the one who should live in fear
I survived alone, I survived alone
Watch your back now 'cause you'll pay the price
Cover your neck 'cause I won't think twice

I'll be standing tall
Better off, better off alone

Now don't try to help me
I can face my own
Woah, woah
Now don't try to catch me
I'm just like a lone wolf, wolf, wolf

Do you know, do you know I'm a lone wolf?
Do you know, do you know you'll be dead and gone?
Do you know, do you know I'm a lone wolf?
Do you know, do you know you'll be dead and gone?

You'll be gone. You'll be dead and gone
I will run and crawl. I'll be standing tall

Now don't try to help me
I can face my own
Woah, woah
Now don't try to catch me
I'm just like a lone wolf, wolf, wolf
