

Snake

Halflives

Don't play me, I'm a fire
Captive in a game of liars
Oh can't you see my face (oh no)
Such a disgrace (how so)
I see knives held right at my face
Pain, I had it then I found my place
Play by my rules, don't complain
I'll bite and walk away

Heard that you said that I should leave this town
I think I'll sit and watch as you're going down
I'll twist the knife and leave you with a vicious ache
I won't blink, I won't shake, no
Because baby I'm a snake

Baby I'm a snake
Baby I'm a snake

Don't blame me, I'm a poison
Tame me, I'm gonna be your prison
Crawling into your bed (oh lord)
I'll leave you for dead (poor soul)
You'll wish you listened to what I said
Shame, you feel it when you hear my name
Frame my picture in your brain
I'll smile but it's just a fake

Heard that you said that I should leave this town
I think I'll sit and watch as you're going down
I'll twist the knife and leave you with a vicious ache
I won't blink, I won't shake, no
Because baby I'm a snake

Baby I'm a snake
Baby I'm a snake

Karma knows and will come collect the debt
And your soul is a price you won't forget
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, hear me out
I'll haunt your dreams forever now

Heard that you said that I should leave this town
I think I'll sit and watch as you're going down
I'll twist the knife and leave you with a vicious ache
And I won't blink, I won't shake
Because baby I'm a snake

Baby I'm a snake
Baby I'm a snake
Baby I'm a snake
Baby I'm a snake
