

Every Single Time

HalfNoise

Oh I'm alright
When you feel wrong
Every single time

Now that you're gone
Now that I'm here
Every single time

Well maybe it's good to take a drive through those pines
If only I could turn the hands of time

Well get what you want now
Well get what you want now

Well keep away everyone
Every single time

When I feel alone
It's at night
Every single time

Well do what you want now
Do what you want now
Do what you want now

Just do what you want now
Do what you want now
Do what you want now

Do what you want now

Well I guess it's fine
If I move on
Everything in time

But what if I'm gone
And you're still here
Everything in time

Well I guess its good to take that drive through those pines
If only I could turn the hands of time

Give me what you want now

Hey!

I'll always love you
I'll always love you
I'll always love you

Well I'll always love you
I'll always love you
I'll always love you

To the end of time
To the end of time
Till the end of time
