

Fire You Set

HalfNoise

Shadows come on your own
Do I keep them or let them go?
Just like you're pressing through my door
Who am I now?
Who would've known?

It's the fire you set
The fire you set
The way we are
The way we are
It's the fire you set
The fire you set
The way we are
The way we are

Another shadow due ahead
Am I running too fast?
She'll leave me or let me go
From reverse too long for saying no

It's the fire you set
The fire you set
The way we are
The way we are
It's the fire you set
The fire you set
The way we are
The way we are

So I string along
Where do these shadows go?
It's the last train along
How can I know?

It's the fire you set
The fire you set
The way we are
The way we are
It's the fire you set
The fire you set
The way we are
The way we are
The way we are
