

Know The Feeling

HalfNoise

Some time ago you said you'd never leave this town
But now you've gone away and there's no one else around
So come on back here baby, come back one more time
All I needed was a little peace of mind

Oh I know the feeling
It's just so hard to lose you
Oh I know the feeling
It's just so hard to lose you

Remember when you said you couldn't stick around
You always left with one foot in and one foot out
So tell me baby why you never said goodbye
All I needed was a decent reason why

Oh I know the feeling
It's just so hard to lose you
Oh I know the feeling
It's just so hard to lose you

And all that I needed was peace of mind
And all that I needed was a reason why
And all that I needed was peace of mind
And all that I needed was a reason why

Oh I know the feeling
It's just so hard to lose you
Oh I know the feeling
It's just so hard to lose you
