

Mountain

HalfNoise

Reversed the steps I took when I was younger
They fall to the ground
I waited so long, I finally learned

But half of me is half of you
I ran away so you would know
In half of me is half of you
I wanna know where to go

You're everything I left behind
You're everything that I can't find
It's a mountain, oh, mountain high
It's a mountain, oh, mountain high

It's the cold wind you saw rush in
It's the bad mood you felt when you saw me alone

But half of me is half of you
I ran away so you would know
In half of me is half of you
I wondered why I let you go

You're everything I left behind
You're everything that I can't find
It's a mountain, oh, mountain high
It's a mountain, oh, mountain high

But half of me is half of you
I wanna know
If half of me is half of you?

You're everything I left behind
You're everything that I can't find
It's a mountain, oh, mountain high
It's a mountain, oh, mountain high
